

AFD Ep 213 Feb 6 Links and Notes

- Interview with Chris Steele of Investment Consulting Associates about the Amazon HQ2 proposals and the debate on investment incentives programs - A few relevant links:
 - <http://www.businessinsider.com/amazon-headquarters-city-proposals-hq2-2017-10/#chicago-illinois-a-campus-that-would-sit-on-a-redeveloped-site-of-a-former-hospital-1>
 - <https://www.curbed.com/2017/10/19/16504426/amazon-hq2-bid-urban-planning>
 - <http://www.incentivesmonitor.com/deals.cfm>

Disclaimers: Bill Humphrey is a former employee of ICA. This interview is not an advertisement or endorsement of the company or its former database. Chris Steele is not involved in the Amazon process and is not speaking on behalf of any client companies or governments in this interview.

- 2nd Topic: Dept of Labor Tip Pooling Regulation
 - <https://www.epi.org/publication/women-would-lose-4-6-billion-in-earned-tips-if-the-administrations-tip-stealing-rule-is-finalized-overall-tipped-workers-would-lose-5-8-billion/>
 - <https://www.salon.com/2018/02/01/department-of-labor-hides-report-on-expected-damage-from-repealing-tips-regulation/>
 - <http://thehill.com/regulation/labor/371798-report-labor-department-hiding-unfavorable-report-on-impacts-of-tip-pooling>
 - <https://www.csmonitor.com/Business/2018/0130/A-tempest-over-tipping-as-Labor-Department-weighs-rule-change>
 - <http://thehill.com/regulation/371822-dem-lawmaker-calls-on-labor-department-to-escind-tip-pooling-rule>
 - <https://www.bizjournals.com/bizwomen/news/latest-news/2018/01/women-stand-to-lose-4-6b-under-tip-pooling-plan.html>
 - <http://www.dallasobserver.com/restaurants/could-the-trump-administrations-tip-pooling-regulations-fix-wage-gaps-in-the-restaurant-industry-10287974>